

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."

JM Bible College - ONLINE will offer Bachelor degrees from the school of Education while electives can be offered by the schools of Theology, Accounting, Mathematics, Linguistics, Business Administration, Tourism and Environmental Sciences, Agriculture, Computer Sciences, Health Administration and Psychology. Based in the United States in a joint effort with countries such as Japan, Israel, and Kenya among others, the college will address the needs of its students worldwide.

JM Bible College will serve and increase enrollment capacity of College education entrants worldwide by educating and preparing students for productive careers in public and private sectors through online and distance education. The College will positively contribute to the evolving needs of society by removing barriers that restrict access and success in higher education, especially for those underserved and non-traditional groups that make up an ever-growing proportion of the population.

The vision of the institution is to chart a balanced Christian Life that is fulfilling by way of Christian education and a mindset that seeks to optimize on God given talents and abilities. The College will admit High School Graduates and other are encouraged to live life the bible way. Our curriculum is designed to shorten and training period by eliminating redundant prerequisites, in order to increase job training opportunities that leverage for permanent employment

Academic Regulations

The number of students admitted is based on the number of students for whom online facilities and professors can be made available. A student may appeal of admission decisions may be made to the Registrar. The College reserves a limited number of spaces in the incoming class for the admission of students with exceptional talent

Why the Study of Education?

Education is the dissemination of knowledge and a powerful cultural exchange and growth in every way These key characteristics are reflected in the structure of the Education that is offered to the students. Diverse, intellectually exciting options that open a wide range of employment opportunities and careers in educational worldwide

Education explores the intellectual, social and psychological development of the child into adulthood and the role of literacy, language and creativity in learning, as well as the historical contexts shaping educational ideas and evolutions.

FIRST YEAR or FRESHMAN REQUIREMENTS

Freshman admissions will be based on the most qualified applicants. Applicants are required to submit a high school transcript showing completion of the following four credits: English, mathematics, Sciences, Social Sciences, and Literature Applicants from unaccredited high schools may be required to pass validating examinations.

Academic Calendar

Registration	June 15 – July 15, 2012 the cost is $50.00
All	The first day of instruction for structured term.	August 6, 2012
All	Cancellation of Enrollment – partial refund.	August 13, 2012
All	Deadline for enrollment prior to $100 late registration fee.	August 20, 2012
All	videoconference course request	August 20, 2012
All	Classes begin	August 20, 2012
All	Final examinations begin.	Professors/Admin
All	Final Grades available with official transcripts	TBD

Purpose for Selected Areas of Study (CLEAP) Culture, Language, Arts, Education & Pedagogy,

Literacy with particular reference to the elementary school and early years education; literary studies including children's literature; arts education with a focus on music, art, drama and creativity; geography, history, languages, classics and religious studies education.

Psychology and Education

The Psychology and Education Group brings the perspectives of cognitive psychology and socio-cultural theory to key issues in Education, focusing upon language, learning, and communication. Its research informs practice in Education, and theoretical understanding in Psychology.

Technology in Education

There is also considerable interest and expertise in the use and integration of digital technologies in these and other subject areas. The group aims to undertake projects which make a significant contribution to both the research and professional fields, seeking to combine intellectual rigor and originality with concern for development of policy and practice.

Department of Elementary Education

Depending on which degree option is selected, coursework may include Child Development; Health, Safety, and Nutrition; Guidance; Observing and Assessing, Child and Youth Issues; Creative Development Experiences; Multicultural Learning Experiences, or Children and Youth with Special Needs.

Sociology in Education

Students will spend time with the children in the Child Study Centre. These are Junior Kindergarten as they engage in a variety of early numeracy activities. They have focused on the mathematics of geometry, patterning, measurement, counting, and sorting will be including many of the activities such as the ability to socialize while they are engaged

Learning through play –

Entrepreneurial skills in Museum learning, gallery and travel setup

Twelve hours of advanced-level courses in your major must be taken at this college. All foreign language requirements must be satisfied. A Major Plan of Study Form must be completed and submitted to the Colleges' Student Affairs Office.

Coursework includes –

Child development, child psychology, language development, phonics, math, art education, nutrition, health, cognitive development, autism and special education, instructional design, information systems, theater, sociology, cultural studies, geography while students are free to add other electives to reach 120 hours in order to graduate

Hours	Requirements
2	Health
2	Phonics
6	Child Development
2	Philosophy of World Education
9	Theater
6	Art Education
5	Math
10	Cognitive Development
10	Information Systems
10	Instructional Design
3	Sociology
3	Cultural Studies
2	Geography
70	Total hours

TUITION FEES

Online Bachelor's Degree Program Tuition Rates
Cost Per Credit	Cost Per Course (3 Credits)	Cost Per Degree (without a scholarship) most students will receive a scholarship
$300	$900	Students need 120 credits to graduate Estimated cost for student with 90 transfer credits: $10,500 + Fees Estimated cost for student with 60 transfer credits: $21,000 + Fees Estimated cost for student with 30 transfer credits: $31,500 + Fees

Link to: Registration and Application Form